

PRESS RELEASE

2007 Grammy Nominee
International Songwriting Competition Winner
Star of the recent PBS special "Invention & Alchemy"

Deborah Henson-Conant

WITH THE

Binghamton Philharmonic
Forum Theatre – Binghamton, NY
Sat. May 19 (8pm)

FOR MORE INFO, CONTACT:

Michael Belcher / publicity@HipHarp.com / 781-483-3556

HI-RES PHOTOS & INFO on Composer/Performer
Deborah Henson-Conant available at:
The "Publicity" page at www.HipHarp.com

Deborah Henson-Conant Electrifies the Forum with the Binghamton Philharmonic

WHO: 2007 Grammy-Nominated Composer/Performer/Electric Harpist with the Binghamton Philharmonic

WHAT: Soloist Deborah Henson-Conant in a Pops Performance

WHEN: Sat. May 19, 2007 at 8pm

WHERE: Forum Theatre – 236 Washington St. – Binghamton, NY

PRICE: $38/$28 (Adult – Section A/B); $35/$25 (Senior – Section A/B);
$10 (Student/Child)

BUY TIX: www.BinghamtonPhilharmonic.org / 607-723-3931
Box Office – 31 Front St. – Binghamton, NY

WHAT IS IT? 2007 Grammy-Nominated artist, electric harpist Deborah Henson-Conant, performs live at the Forum Theatre in a Pops Performance with the Binghamton Philharmonic.

Fresh from debuting her television special with full orchestra, "Invention & Alchemy," on PBS stations across the U.S., Henson-Conant makes her Binghamton area debut with her high energy renditions of classic and original compositions ranging from Celtic to jazz, Latin, and folk.

Henson-Conant sings, tells stories and plays the harp. Whether performing on television, on-stage or in stadiums, symphony halls or intimate settings, her performances blur the line between musical and theatrical event.

FOR MORE INFO about Deborah Henson-Conant: www.HipHarp.com

-###-