

#7D-Golden Cage Dream Reprise

#7D

from The Golden Cage (updated 2/17/18 DHC)

Words & Music by Deborah Henson-Conant

Piano

[TEXT] [TEXT]

[BORIS:]

B: The Gol - - den Cage I've dreamt a - bout it since I was a child. The

Pno.

B: Gol - den cage, the place where ev - ry-thing you've ev - er dreamt would hap-pen hap-pens for

Pno.

[ALPHEA]: Wait - you've travelled to all those places looking for a CAGE?

BORIS: Not "A" cage - "The" cage ...

... The GOLDEN cage.

[ALPHEA] And this search - it's like a quest?

[BORIS] BORIS: The greatest quest for a birdman My

B: you

Pno.

a tempo (♩ = 60)

B: fath-er sang the tales to me ev-ry night when I was small of those who left to find the cage, re-turned in shame, or

Pno.

16 17

B: not at all and snug in-side our lit-tle nest, my mind in-flamed with cage and quest, I

Pno.

18 19

B: swore I'd be the one to prove the myth was true that I would find the Pno.

20 21 22

B: gol den cage. But me, I nev-er could fly straight, I nev-er could fly true. One shin-y ob-ject and I'm

Pno.

23 24 25

B: off in the Blue al-ways lost, up in the air ne ver clo-ser to my dream

Pno.

26 27 28

molto rit. ♩ = 53

B: But deep in my soul there was a flame of hope that ne - ver would die

Pno.

29 30 31

B: deep in my soul the hope that I would know the pow - er the sto - ry the

Pno.

32 33 34

B: spen - dor the glo - - - - - glo - ry of the

Pno.

35 36

Broader

A: The golden cage The sweet, e - lu - sive glo - ry of a place you be - long

B: gol den cage. The sweet, e - lu - sive glo - ry of a place where you be - long. The great - est

Pno.

37 38 39

p

A. p The great-est test, a sac-red quest the hal-lowed ground

B. test a sac-red quest the hal-lowed ground

Pno. cresc. poco a poco

40 41 42 43

A. where all the life you've lost found

B. where all the life you've lost rit. is found

Pno.

44 45 46

A. The gold - en cage

B. The gold - en cage

Pno. f sub p

47 48 49